The Eternal One spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai:

1. Speak to the Israelite people and say to them: When you enter the land that I assign to you, the land shall observe a sabbath of the Eternal.

2. Six years you may sow your field and six years you may prune your vineyard and gather in the yield.

3. But in the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath of complete rest, a sabbath of the Eternal; you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard.

4. You shall not reap the aftergrowth of your harvest or gather the grapes of your untrimmed vines; it shall be a year of complete rest for the land.

5. But you may eat whatever the land during its sabbath will produce—you, your male and female slaves, the hired and bound laborers who live with you, and your cattle and the beasts in your land may eat all its yield.

6. You shall count off seven weeks of years—seven times seven years—so that the period of seven weeks of years gives you a total of forty-nine years.

7. Then you shall sound the horn loud; in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month—the Day of Atonement—you shall have the horn sounded throughout your land.

Leviticus 25:1-9
Jeremiah 32:6-10

6 Jeremiah said, “The word of the Eternal came to me: 7 Your uncle Shallum’s son Chanam-el will come to you, saying: ‘Buy my land in Anatot, because you have the redemption-right to buy it!’ 8 And just as the Eternal had foretold, my cousin Chanam-el came to me in the court of the guard and said: ‘Please buy my land in Anatot, in the territory of Benjamin; you have the right of possession and [the duty of] redemption—so buy it!’ “Then I knew that this was truly the word of the Eternal. 9 So I bought the land in Anatot from my cousin Chanam-el; I weighted the money out for him, seventeen shekels of silver. 10 I wrote a deed, sealed it, and had it witnessed; and I weighed out the silver on the scales.
