Leviticus 25:1-9

^{1.} The Eternal One spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai: ² Speak to the Israelite people and say to them: When you enter the land that I assign to you, the land shall observe a sabbath of the Eternal. ³ Six years you may sow your field and six years you may prune your vineyard and gather in the yield. ⁴ But in the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath of complete rest, a sabbath of the Eternal; you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. ⁵ You shall not reap the aftergrowth of your harvest or gather the grapes of your untrimmed vines; it shall be a year of complete rest for the land. ⁶ But you may eat whatever the land during its sabbath will produce—you, your male and female slaves, the hired and bound laborers who live with you, ⁷ and your cattle and the beasts in your land may eat all its yield. ⁸ You shall count off seven weeks of years—seven times seven years—so that the period of seven weeks of years gives you a total of forty-nine years. ⁹ Then you shall sound the horn loud; in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month—the Day of Atonement—you shall have the horn sounded throughout your land.

Jeremiah 32:6-10

וּ וַיֹּאמֶר יִרְמְיָהוּ הָיָה דְּבַּר-יְהֹוָה אֵלֵי לֵאמֹר: ז הַנֵּה חֲנַמְאֵל

⁶ Jeremiah said, "The word of the Eternal came to me: ⁷ Your uncle Shallum's son Chanam-el will come to you, saying: 'Buy my land in Anatot, because you have the redemption-right to buy it!' ⁸ And just as the Eternal had foretold, my cousin Chanam-el came to me in the court of the guard and said: 'Please buy my land in Anatot, in the territory of Benjamin; you have the right of possession and [the duty of] redemption—so buy it!' "Then I knew that this was truly the word of the Eternal. ⁹ So I bought the land in Anatot from my cousin Chanam-el; I weighted the money out for him, seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰ I wrote a deed, sealed it, and had it witnessed; and I weighed out the silver on the scales.
