1. The Eternal One spoke to Moses, saying:
2. Speak to the whole Israelite community and say to them: You shall be holy, for I, the Eternal your God, am holy.
3. You shall each revere your mother and your father, and keep My sabbaths: I the Eternal am your God.
4. Do not turn to idols or make molten gods for yourselves: I the Eternal am your God.
5. When you sacrifice an offering of well-being to the Eternal, sacrifice it so that it may be accepted on your behalf.
6. It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it, or on the day following; but what is left by the third day must be consumed in fire.
7. If it should be eaten on the third day, it is an offensive thing, it will not be acceptable.
8. And one who eats of it shall bear the guilt for having profaned what is sacred to the Eternal; that person shall be cut off from kin.
9. When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap all the way to the edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest.
On that day I will raise up David’s fallen shelter. I will rebuild the breaches in its walls and raise up its ruins and build it up as in days of old. They shall possess what is left of Edom and all the nations that were called by My name—says the Eternal One, who does this.

The time is coming —says the Eternal One—when the one who plows the field will overtake the one who reaps it, and the treader of grapes [will overtake] the one who sows seeds, when the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and all the hills shall overflow. I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel: They shall rebuild the desolate cities, and dwell [in them]; they shall plant vineyards, and drink their wine; make gardens, and eat their fruit. I will plant them on their soil, never again to be uprooted from the soil that I have given them—says the Eternal One, your God.
