Moses then convoked the whole Israelite community and said to them: “These are the things that the Eternal has commanded you to do:

1. On six days work may be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the Eternal; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

2. You shall kindle no fire throughout your settlements on the Sabbath day.

3. Moses said further to the whole community of Israelites: This is what the Eternal has commanded:

4. Take from among you gifts to the Eternal; everyone whose heart is so moved shall bring them—

5. Gifts for the Eternal: gold, silver, and copper;

6. Blue, purple, and crimson yarns, fine linen, and goats’ hair;

7. Tanned ram skins, dolphin skins, and acacia wood;

8. Oil for lighting, spices for the anointing oil and for the aromatic incense;

9. Lapis lazuli and other stones for setting, for the ephod and the breastpiece.
I Kings 7:40-44

Hiram [also] made the pots, the shovels, and the basins [for the Temple]. With that, Hiram finished all the work he was doing for Solomon in the House of the Eternal:

41. the two columns, the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the columns, and the two pieces of network to cover the bowl-shaped capitals;

42. the four hundred pomegranates for the pieces of latticework, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework, to cover the two rounded capitals on top of the columns;

43. the ten stands and the ten pots that stood on them;

44. the tank with the twelve oxen supporting it;
