And Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran. Coming upon a [certain] place, he passed the night there, for the sun was setting; taking one of the stones of the place, he made it his headrest as he lay down in that place. He dreamed, and lo—a ladder was set on the ground, with its top reaching to heaven, and lo—angels of God going up and coming down on it. And lo—the Eternal stood up above it, and said, “I, the Eternal, am the God of your father Abraham and God of Isaac: the land on which you are lying I will give to you and to your descendants. And your descendants shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread out to the west and the east and the north and the south. Through you and your descendants all the families of the earth shall find blessing. And here I am, with you: I will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this soil. I will not let go of you as long as I have yet to do what I have promised you.” Waking up from his sleep, Jacob said, “Truly, the Eternal is in this place, and I did not know it!” He was awestruck, and said, “How awe-inspiring is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven!” Rising early that morning, Jacob took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up as a monument. He then poured oil on its top. Jacob then made this vow: “If God is with me and watches over me on this path that I am taking and gives me bread to eat and clothes to wear, and if I return safely to my father’s house, then will the Eternal be my God; and this stone that I have set up as a monument shall be a house of God. And [of] all that You give me, I will dedicate a tenth to You.”
13. Jacob fled to the land of Aram, Israel served for a wife; and for a wife he kept watch [of sheep]. 14. By a prophet the Eternal brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet they were watched. 15. Ephraim caused bitter anger, and because of his [blood-guilt] his sovereign abandoned him, and paid him back for his scorn.

1. When Ephraim spoke with trembling, he was lifted high in Israel; but through Baal he incurred guilt, and died. 2. They add sin to sin, making for themselves molten images, skillfully making idols, the work of artisans throughout. They speak to them; to [images of] calves, which people sacrifice, they offer kisses! 3. Therefore, they shall be like the morning cloud, like the dew so quickly gone, like straw driven as by a storm from a threshing-floor, like smoke out of a hole in the wall. 4. Yet I, the Eternal, have been your God ever since the land of Egypt; you have known no [real] God but Me, there is no Savior besides Me. 5. I knew you in the wilderness, in a land of blazing heat.
