1. God spoke all these words, saying:
2. I the Eternal am your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, the house of bondage:
3. You shall have no other gods besides Me.
4. You shall not make for yourself a sculptured image, or any likeness of what is in the heavens above, or on the earth below, or in the waters under the earth.
5. You shall not bow down to them or serve them. For I the Eternal your God am an impassioned God, visiting the guilt of the parents upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generations of those who reject Me,
6. but showing kindness to the thousandth generation of those who love Me and keep My commandments.
7. You shall not swear falsely by the name of the Eternal your God; for the Eternal will not clear one who swears falsely by God's name.
8. Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.
9. Six days you shall labor and do all your work,
10. but the seventh day is a Sabbath of the Eternal your God: you shall not do any work—you, your son or daughter, your male or female slave, or your cattle, or the stranger who is within your settlements.
11. For in six days the Eternal made heaven and earth and sea—and all that is in them—and then rested on the seventh day; therefore the Eternal blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.
12. Honor your father and your mother, that you may long endure on the land that the Eternal your God is assigning to you.
1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw my Liege seated on a throne, high and exalted, with a robe whose train filled the temple. 2 Seraphim stood about, each with six wings—two covering the face, two covering the body, and two to fly with. 3 And each called to the other: “Holy, holy, holy is the God of heaven’s hosts, whose Presence fills all the earth!” 4 At the sound of the call, the foundations shook and the temple filled with smoke. 5 “Woe is me!” said I, “I am lost; for I am a man of impure lips, and I live among a people of impure lips, yet these eyes of mine have seen the Sovereign, the God of heaven’s hosts.” 6 But one of the seraphim flew over to me with a live coal, which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.
